JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

Civil Side.

Rule of Practice No. 63, dated 14*th December* 1885.

The Chief Court directs that copies of judgments and decrees which have been prepared at the instance of parties, or their Advocates or Pleaders, and which, owing to default on their part, have not been delivered to them, shall be destroyed, if not claimed, within six months, from the date of their preparation.

Civil Side.

Rule of Practice No. 64, dated 14*th December* 1885.

The Chief Court issues the following rule for the disposal of movable property attached in execution of decrees. If the Plaintiff who causes movable property to be attached, fails to pay batta, or to take steps for bringing the property to sale within the time fixed by the Court, the property will be released from attachment and restored to the judgment-debtor; but if the latter does not claim possession of the said property, within a specified time, it will be sold by public auction, and the proceeds kept as a distinct deposit, in the Treasury, for a period of six months. A notice should, in the meantime, be posted in the Court, specifying the number of the case in which the property was attached, the names of the parties concerned, and the description of the property; and if no claims are preferred within the time specified, viz., six months, the sale proceeds shall be carried to the credit of Government.

Civil Side.

Rule of Practice No. 65, dated 17*th December* 1885.

The Chief Court directs that explanations of delay in all Small Cause Suits, pending over 2 months, should be submitted with the Statement No. 1, and the words "other than Small Causes" should be inserted in column 23 of the Statement, after the words "in all cases."

By Order of the Court,
S. HAMAJEE ROW,
Registrar.
